CONVICTED DRUG FELON SENTENCED FOR POSSESSION OF EXPLOSIVES

BOWLING GREEN, KY - Daryl Scott Sanders, age 26, of Brownsville, Kentucky, in Edmondson County, was sentenced to 3 years and 10 months imprisonment in United States District Court, Bowling Green, Kentucky, for possession of explosives by a convicted felon, David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, and Paul Vido, Special Agent in Charge of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), Louisville Field Division, jointly announced today. Joseph H. McKinley, Jr., Judge, United States District Court, also sentenced Sanders to 3 years supervised release following incarceration. There is no parole in the federal judicial system.

Sanders plead guilty and admitted that on or about September 5, 2005, in Edmondson County, Kentucky, he possessed explosives, after having been previously convicted in Sumner County, Tennessee, of possession of pseudoephedrine with intent to manufacture methamphetamine, a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year.

As a result of the investigation, federal agents recovered approximately 200 pounds of dynamite.

The case was prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Larry Fentress and was investigated by the Bowling Green Field Office of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF), as part of ATF's mandated mission to reduce violent crime and other threats to public safety.
